Stony Run Brew House has recently opened at 3605 East Market Street, Springettsbury Township, York, Pennsylvania. The co-owners, Bob Elmiger and Tim March, have integrated their love of history with the brewing process. The name Stony Run has historic significance as do many of their beers.
The beer that is special to the Friends of Camp Security is:
CAMP SECURITY RED COAT IPA
Camp Security, an American Revolutionary War Prison Camp built in 1781 is the namesake of our intentionally British flavored Red IPA. Rich malty backbone gives way to hoppy bitterness and aroma. Caramel, toffee and dark fruit notes add to the complexity.

Other beers were also given names from the York area.

Stony Run Beer List

Even if you are not a beer lover, Stony Run offers non-alcoholic drinks and a wide variety of pub-style food by Executive Chef, John Moore.

Stony Run Brew House Food

FOCS applaud the Stony Run Brew House’s support of the history of York County and specifically, Camp Security, and we wish them great future success!

$$$$  Giving Tuesday  $$$$

On Giving Tuesday, FOCS received $170 in donations. Thank you to all that contributed!
