Click Here To See 2019 Dig News:

York Daily Record Video and Article

Reminder:
Next Tuesday Is
Archaeological Dig Public Day
Learn more about Camp Security at our Friends of Camp Security Public Day. Friends of Camp Security Historians June Burk Lloyd and Jonathan Stayer will discuss the history of the camp. June is Librarian Emerita of the York County Heritage Trust. Jonathan is the supervisor of record services at Pennsylvania Historical & Museum Commission, Harrisburg. They have both done extensive research into the history of Camp Security.

In addition, John Crawmer, our Principal Camp Security Archaeologist, will discuss the archaeological work being done. Presently, John catalogs and assists the management of archaeological collections at Harvard's Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnography. In addition, he assists with Harvard Yard Archaeology Project Field School and has entered artifact data into the TMS (transcranial magnetic stimulation) database.

Friends of Camp Security board members will also be available to discuss www.campsecurity.org website, the quest for further funding for ongoing archaeology, and to answer questions about the history of Camp Security and future plans.

When:

Tuesday, August 27, 2019

Morning Session 10:00

Afternoon Session 1:30

(Rain Date: Thursday, August 29, 2019)

Where:

Meet at the parking lot of the Good News Free Will Baptist Church at 530 Locust Grove Road.

Transportation:

Shuttles will be arranged from there. Visitors should be at the church parking lot by 9:30 for the 10:00 AM session, and at 1:00 for the 1:30 PM session.
Hope to see you there!

Join Us

Contact us at:

campsecurity@campsecurity.org