Grant Award

Thanks to the diligent grant-writing efforts of John Crawmer, FOCS Principal Archaeologist, FOCS has been awarded a $6,400 grant from the Battlefield Fund of the National Trust Grants Office.

Presently, John catalogs and assists the management of archaeological collections at Harvard's Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnography. In addition, he assists with Harvard Yard Archaeology Project Field School and has entered artifact data into the TMS (transcranial magnetic stimulation) database. Amidst all his studies and intensive work schedule, John still managed to perform grant writing for FOCS.

The grant money will be a tremendous help in our continuing efforts to fully fund our upcoming archaeological dig. FOCS would like to thank the National Trust Grant Office for their generous grant, and we would also like to thank John Crawmer for his rigorous efforts applying for the grant.
Strategic Plan

FOCS has now completed a strategic plan to provide direction in our future endeavors. Click here to view the plan:

2019 FOCS Strategic Plan

2019 Dig Goal

Although we have many devoted and hard-working volunteers, the proposed cost of the 2019 archaeological dig is approximately $21,400. If you have already contributed, thank you for supporting us. If you haven't updated your membership, would like to join, or just contribute, please click here:

Join Us

Contact us at:
campsecurity@campsecurity.org