On this 22^o day of October 1833 personally appeared in the Boon Circuit Court now in session before the honorable Bethweel F.
Morris President & William Kenworthy & Jacob Johns Esquires his associates, Jacob Foreman a resident of the said County of Boon in the State of Indiana, aged 75 or 76 years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to attain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832

That he entered the service of the United States, ^{as a private} under the following named Officers and served as herein stated that in summer of the second year of the revolutionary war, he then being a resident of Reems town Currico township Lancaster County Pennsylvania, voluntiered into a company commanded by Captain Reems, other officers names not now recalled, to rendezvous at Lancaster in the County aforesaid for the purpose of guarding the powder house or magazine, belonging to the Continental Congress, and that he was so implein 2 as such guard for the space of 120 months, when he received a written discharge from his Captain.
He returned home just before harvest.

1 That the year succeeding the last mentioned tour still being a resident of the town & county last mentioned, he was drafted in the summer after harvest to go to Lancaster to guard several hundred British prisoners, that in pursuance of such draft he entered the company commanded by Michael Overly which was made up & formed in Chocowico township or Currico township in said county, that after the organization of the company, he was marched 12 miles to the town of Lancaster where his company were kept to guard the British prisoners and he believes a number of British prisoners, among them, but such is his want of recollection he cannot say how many of either were in the stockades, he recollects that while at Lancaster the Virginia troops passed through that place on their way towards Philadelphia, but their destination he does not now recollect. They were several days in passing the place - & during that time he recollects that he was on guard at the Lancaster ~~camp~~ jail one day where several British prisoners were confined, who had attempted to cut out of the stockades had been detected - He served in the before mentioned company two months & was discharged by his Captain.

3 In the latter part of the summer or fore part of the fall of the fourth year, he believes, after the revolution was he was again drafted while residing at the place he was living at the times he was called to perform his two preceding tours of duty - to go to Lancaster to guard the British prisoners who had been recently brought to that place - that in pursuance of such draft he entered into one Captain John Neplinger's company under whom he was marched into Lancaster, under whom he served to guard said prisoners two months when he was again discharged -

That the summer succeeding the last mentioned tour of duty he was again drafted & entered into Michael Overly Company. He was marched by said Captain

Michael only towards Philadelphia from the same township before mentioned - that the Company was marched as far as one Peopls Tavern in the direction of Phil^a - He thinks about a day and half march from his residence, when the Company were ordered back - that from the time he was called into service in this last mentioned tour of duty until he was discharged, he thinks he served two weeks He also recollects of being called on & actually after the with his Company, at or about the time of the battle of Braddawine, but before he marched, was dishonored & returned home -

In answer to the several interrogatories presented to the war department, he deposed that -

1. That he was born of German parents in Lancaster County Pennsylvania in 1758 or 1759

That he has no recorde of his age.

That he was living in Lancaster County Penn^a when called to perform his several tours of duty - that after the revolution he moved to Dauphin County Penn^a - from that County he moved to Mifflin County in the same state - from that County he moved to Cumberland County & from that place he moved to the state of Ohio - & from the state of Ohio he moved to the County of Raan Indiana where he now resides -

2. He believes he was drafted to perform the several tours of duty set forth except the first -

3. That he could not speak the English language when called into service & that no scholar he was not very conversant with anything relating to the great events that were transpiring during the revolution, except his immediate duty - that from old age & consequent loss of memory, he cannot recollect the names of any officers in the several Companies in which he served except the foreman - But he recollects a brigade inspector of the name of Habiler the name of no other officer at this time

6. That he received discharges from the several Captains under whom he served for the several terms of service above set forth that he has long since lost his discharges - that he knows of no one living by whom he can produce his services before set out unless he has any documentary evidence to prove the same
 7. That he knows of no Clergymen in his neighborhood who has had any acquaintance with him but he is well acquainted with William Menworthy one of the associate judges of the Mason Circuit Court and John Slocum Esquire of his present neighborhood who can testify as to his character for veracity & their belief of his services as a soldier of the revolution

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War records of Jacob Foreman and Herman Wyman, both pensioned in Boone County, Indiana.

He served in the Pennsylvania Troops and has been erroneously listed as having served in the North Carolina Troops.
