Sir

In the case of Eve Kochenour widow of Jacob Kochenour, the alleged service of her husband under Capt Staff in 1776 is disputed by the notes of that Company in this office his name not being found thereon. The balance of service if admitted would not be sufficient to entitle her to a pension, and her

Mrs. Kochenour, ^{claim her husband's services and her} papers are placed with repect to her under the act of 7 July 1838.
