Decr 21. 185.

Wm. J. L. Edwards,

I have the honor to enclose you some additional evidence in reference to the present Claim of my grandmother ~~Abraham~~ ^{John} Giddens. I made a good deal of inquiry about the character of the witness, and always heard them highly spoken of. I have believed the claim to be so good that I have spent much time and money in trying to establish it, and hope that the evidence I send you will authorize you to allow her a pension, and as the claim has been in hand a long time, I would request that you would forward your decision immediately ^{to me} at Taylorsville Kentucky. I called to see Mr George Ballou yesterday, but he was dead, died on last Monday night. He was in the service a long time and drew a pension of 96 dollars per annum, and the gentlemen and several of the family told me they had often heard him speak of Captain Giddens, and he would be qualified that he heard him speak of Captain ^{Giddens} Giddens more than three weeks since.

Yours obt Servt.

Claim of Pensions
Washington City

State of Pennsylvania
Washington County

On this twenty fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred & forty four, personally appeared before the subscriber a justice of the peace in & for the County of Washington, Catherine Fulton, a resident of Smith Township in the County of Washington State of Pennsylvania, aged eighty two years, who being first duly sworn, according to law doth on her oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the act of Congress passed July 7. 1835 intitled "an act granting half pay & pension to certain widowz" that she is the widow of Samuel Fulton, who was a captain of the Militia at one time. I think of the Pennsylvania Troops, or Volunteers, or of the State line. I cannot now remember of which, I believe he was in the warz about sixt years, he was in the battle at Long Island at which engagement he was wounded through the body, or else at the battle of Brandywine, not certain whether he was at both these battles he was at the battle on Staten Island, & marched from Hence to the White Plains by the order of Genl Washington or General Putnam, he was also out in the Indian Warz at one of the placez up on the river Susquehanna, called Shanokin, where he recd a wound in the knee, he was at a place called the "Queens Palace", where he & his men took from the English & Indians a large quantiy of furz & other booty, he was also engaged in guarding the British at camp security in York County, in 1781 or 2. in York County Penn. I am sure for four months & perhaps more. I know of his services at that time, I once remembred many more particularz, but have now forgot them, I have ~~had~~ frequently seen my husbands commission & have had it in my posseess. until about 1831 when Robert Fulton (who is since dead) took it to Washington, when it was lost, I know not what has become of it - I further declare that she was married to the said Samuel Fulton, on the fifth day of May, one thousand seven hundred & eighty five, that her husband the aforesaid Samuel Fulton died on the thirtenth day of May one thousand eight hundred & twenty one, that she was not married to him prior to his leaving the service, but the marriage took place previous to the first of January 1794 at the time above stated - sworn & subscribed on the day of year above written, before me,

Catharine Fulton

Dear Madam:

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, W. 2783, that Samuel Fulton enlisted some time in 1776 in York County, Pennsylvania, and served one year as lieutenant and the balance of the time as captain in the Pennsylvania troops, length of service about six years. During this service he was in the battle of Long Island, where he received a wound in his body, in the battles of Brandywine and Staten Island, capturing fifteen Hessians in the latter battle. In 1779 and 1780, he fought against the Indians on the Susquehanna River and was shot on the knee at Shamokin. In 1780 and 1781, he was in North and South Carolina under General Greene in the battles of Hanging Rock, King's Mountain, Cowpens and Salisbury. From August 1781, he was at Camp Security, New York, for four months or longer.

Soldier died May 13, 1821 in Washington County, Pennsylvania, at which time he was in his seventy-first year.

He married May 5, 1785, at Chancery, Hopewell Township, York County, Pennsylvania, Catherine, or Catherine, Smith, daughter of Colonel Smith.

She was pensioned by Special Act of Congress approved August 5, 1848.

In 1844, she was a resident of Smith Township, Washington County, Pennsylvania, aged eighty-two years.

Their son, Robert Fulton, was living in 1831 but died before 1844. A son, a Presbyterian minister, was referred to in 1839. One Samuel Fulton, a Presbyterian minister, made affidavit in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, in 1844 in behalf of the widow. A grandson, Samuel S. Fulton, was a resident of Taylerville, Kentucky, in 1845.

Very truly yours,

E. W. MORGAN,
Acting Commissioner.

Supplement.

(Samuel Fulton)

His widow, Catherine, was granted a pension by Special Act of Congress, approved on August 5, 1848, for his services as a Captain in the Pennsylvania troops, but the details of such services are not definitely stated in any of the papers. In her petition the widow stated that she believed he was in the war for about six years; that he was in ~~the battles~~ of Long Island and Brandywine, and in one of those battles received a wound through the body; that he was at the battle on Staten Island and marched from thence to White Plains; that he was also out in the Indian wars and while engaged in a battle at Shamokin was wounded in the knee; that he was also at a place called "Queen's Place", where he and his men took from the British and Indians a large quantity of furs and other booty; that he was also engaged in guarding the British prisoners at Camp Security, in York Co., in the year 1781, or 1782, for at least four months. One of the witnesses in the case stated that he personally knew of Capt. Fulton being in the service at least seventeen or eighteen months; that he was in command of a company and was engaged in the battles of Hanging Rock, Kings Mountain, and Guilford.
