Shippensburg. On this the day of January 20, 1858 before me a Justice of the Peace in and for said County of Shippensburg, personally appeared Mary McBride aged years a resident of said County of Shippensburg who being duly sworn according to law says that she is the lawful widow of Hugh McBride late a deceased soldier of the Revolutionary and Indian war in the United States service, that her said husband had long since retired to her often conversing with his brother soldiers on the subject of the said wars, that after serving a term of two months under Capt. Cowen that he resided for the term of six months in the Camp, commanded by Capt. Morrison of the Pennsylvania and in the Regt. commanded by Col Cunningham of Lancaster Co. Pa. that they was ordered to New Jersey to Staten Island for some time also at Amboy from thence to a point on Long Island & not long after which they was engaged at the said battle of Long Island & as well as upon a second battle that said husband stated that he was at the battle of the white Plains and that after which their surviving troops retreated through New Jersey thence to Philadelphia where they was honorably discharged by their said officers about the 12th of December of said year, that he had shortly served under said Capt. Wood and was first of Rank Company that he volunteered under said officers for two months, and was soon engaged in the battle of Red Bank, that said McBride was in the battle of Brimstone as he said he was one of the guards of the Hesperus, thus taken at the said battle of Brimstone for nearly eight months, or until they was engaged at the battle of Brandywine in September 1777 then under the command of Col Walter Stewart from Philadelphia (called the Irish Beauty) - Cannot recollect of said McBride stated of being in the battle of Germantown, but that he continued and was in all the encampments at and near the Valley Forge until the month of June when he McBride was engaged in the battle of Monmouth - that he stated that he had been long sick after said battle, that he spoke of the battle of Clary point, but she does not know of his saying that he was engaged in said battle, but said he was at the battle of York Town, Virginia, at the surrender in the fall of 1781 that he was then of Capt. Marshalls Company, that said McBride stated that after the great surrender he was engaged guarding the British Prisoners at the Lancaster Barracks until about two years before the close of the said Revolutionary war, that previous thereto said McBride stated that he had been on or about two years in actual service in said war in the Penn^a line, that he said that he was honorably discharged by Col or Major Cunningham an officer of the Prison at Lancaster near the middle of November 1781. From thence he returned home & joined the Army at Fort Pitt and served until 1783 & in the Spring of 1790 served as follows, that in 1790 her said Husband stated that he engaged for six months at Fort Pitt in the Company, Commanded by Capt.

McCord & that as well as deponent can recollect in the Regt. Commanded by Col late Major Wilkes and also said in the Army Commanded by Major Genl. Josiah Warner, that they was ordered to Fort Washington & from thence they soon was ordered out in the Indian Country & had several skirmishes where they was successful, but finally got very greatly defeated and nearly half of said Army was reported lost in their last battles and that the survivors returned again to Penn^a & many of whom remained at Fort Pitt of course where said McBride was Honorably discharged by his said Officers after having served about six months, having published at said Fort Pitt for six months. A deponent states the date of said discharge was about or sometime in December of said year. That her said Husband and others of his brother soldiers engaged first as Volunteers in the Company, Commanded by Capt McMair for six months in the Regt. Commanded (thinks he said Col Wilkins, also mentioned of a Col Fairhill and that the said Volunteers served on the frontier, far up and down the Alleghany river and considerably at and above Fort Pittaining & her said Husband mentioned of much Sighting & skirmishing against said Indians and that he also stated of guarding Trains, Craigs Pass & Ferry passages & other Stations & Blockhouses on and near said river - that they were their provisions, ammunition & pay at said Fort Pitt, thus they continued to serve in the said service until their term of six months expired, she believes in September or early in the fall of 1791 & honorably discharged by their said Officers at or near Fort Pitt of course. That said McBride stated that he also served much as a hired substitute. That sometimes or not long after said discharge her said husband again engaged for six months longer in the Company, commanded by Capt. Patterson and served in similar tours as before except when they was ordered on the well known Campaign to Lake Erie, and at Fort Leboeuf, Casperwago, French Creek & Fort Maudslowi for some time & had been building & repairing Block-houses & Forts &c. until one of the scouting parties was sent as an expedient to the Fort, that a large number of the Indians warriors was on the their way down the said Alleghany River, to Fort Pittwinning & directly they was pursued by the Volunteers chosen out of their three Companies (By of the said Capt. Patterson, Capt. Bell and Capt. McMaire), who was served on a forced March and arrived in time to hear the Indians firing on the said Fort Pittwinning, when a skirmish took place, when the said Indians fled & some few killed & some wounded and the said Soldiers took and kept possession of said Fort and thus continued to serve in the said service until their said term of six months had expired when they was honorably discharged by their said Officers, after their said three Companies returned and arrived at said Fort Pitt. That he often stated of serving as a substitute for a James Davis & some Others which she can't recollect, but the same as reported in her former petition for State Service that her said husband & some of his brother Soldiers enlisted for the term of three years at said Fort Pitt in the Company, commanded by Capt. Sparks from said County in the Month of April 1793, as her said husband stated it was a little before Gen. Wayne's Army left their encampment at Logansville in the Army boats destined for Fort Washington when her said husband was ordered on guard also guarding the Army stores & until the said Army marched off on the Northern Campaign, on Gen.

Harrisons and Gen. St. Clairs trail to Fort Mifflin and also stated that he continued in the said service and was in some skirmishes and was also engaged in the last and general Battle of August 1794, & that he was honorably discharged by Col. Butler & said Capt. Sparks after the general treaty at said Mifflin, in the Month of August 1795 & returned again to Fort Pitt. Your Report further declares that her said husband was in actual service longer than fourteen days, and for respective terms of service as aforesaid as represented to her by her said husband in his lifetime.
That she has already made a full and detailed statement of her said husband's said service which is now on file in the Pension Office at Washington City in support of her claim to a pension. Also Proof filed in support of the same which said declaration and said Proof she respectfully asks to be received in support of this her Claim for Bounty Land in right of the said Service, of her said husband.

Your Depoent further states that she is years of age and that she was Married to the said Hugh McBride on the day of A.D. 1827 in Fayette County State of Penn^a by one Enock Abraham a Justice of the Peace in and for said County, of Fayette and that her name before said Marriage was Mary Baker that her said Husband Hugh McBride died on the day of A.D. 1836 and that she is now a Widow, and has continued a Widow unmarried ever since the death of the said Hugh McBride, and is still a Widow - that for said Marriage and death of her said Husband she refers to Proof on file as aforesaid in support of her said application for a Pension - that there is no public private or family Record of her said Marriage with Hugh M. Bride in existence to her knowledge and belief that your Depoent has no Documentary evidence in support of this her Claim - that she further hereby appoints Daniel Downer her Attorney and authorizes him to receive the Certificate or Warrant for Bounty Land which may be issued to her in right of the services aforesaid of her said Husband and to attend to and procure the Settlement of such Business as Depoent may have with the United States both for Pension and Bounty Land in any Office or Department of the same and to receive all Certificates of Pension and Bounty Land, and to receive and receipt for all sums of Money that may be found due Depoent, upon any account or claim now unsettled hereby revoking all power authority given to any former Agent or Atty. That she makes this declaration for the purpose of obtaining the Bounty Land to which she may be entitled under the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1855 and she further declares that she has not received Bounty Land under this or any other Act of Congress, but that an application heretofore might have been made in my behalf through the Agency of William D Wells Esq. but no Certificate or Warrant issued by virtue of said application if one made to the best of my knowledge and belief.

said County of who being duly sworn according to law says that she is the lawful Widow of Hugh McBride late a deceased Soldier of the Revolutionary and Indian War that her said Husband had long since stated when often conversing with his brother soldiers on the subject of the said wars that after serving a tour of two months under Cap. Cane that he enlisted for the term of six months in the Company Commanded by Capt. Morrison of the Pennsylvania and in the Regt. Commanded by Col. Cunningham and of Lancaster Co. Pa. that they was ordered to New Jersey to Staten Island for some time & also at Army was reported lost in their last battle & that the survivors returned again to Penna. & many of whom remained at said Fort Pitt where said McBride was honorably discharged by his said Officers after having served about six months, having enlisted for six months at Fort Pitt, Deppant states that the date of said discharge was about or sometime in December of said year that her said husband & others of his brother soldiers engaged first as volunteers in the Company Commanded by Captain McNeil for six months in the Regiment Commanded (thinks he said Col. Wilkins, also mentioned of a Col. Sawhill and that the said volunteers served on the frontier far up and down the Alleghany river and considerably at and about Fort Pitt having & her said husband mentioned of much hunting & skirmishing against said Indians and that he also stated of guarding Gunns, Carriages & other stations & Blockhaus on & near said river. that they saw their provisions diminished & pay at said Fort Pitt, thus they continued to serve in the said service until their term of six months expired, the latter in September or early in the fall of 1798, honorably discharged by their said Officers at or near Fort Pitt aforesaid. That said McKinnis stated that he also served, much as a hired substitute, that sometime or not long after said discharge her said husband again engaged for six months longer in the Campy, Commanded by Capt. Patterson & served in similar terms as before except when they was ordered on the well known Campaign to Lake Erie and at Fort LeBoeuf (Capewage, French Creek & Fort

Dear Sir,

Your communication relative to the Service of Hugh M'Pride in the Revolutionary War was duly received at this Dept. but owing to the amount of business on my Desk, and the time necessary to make a thorough examination of the Records connected with Revolutionary Service I have not been able to give you communication an earlier answer.
You have now to say that after a careful examination of the Revolutionary papers on file in this Dept. I have failed entirely to find the name of Hugh M'Pride upon any of them.

This I exceedingly regret as the Dept. is always anxious to furnish this kind of information particularly to the Widow of an old Revolutionary Soldier.

The Auditor
General's office at this place containing many of the papers connected with that War, by advancing the office of this Dept., you may possibly get some evidence of the Service of though not made.

Very Respectfully Yours

Your letter of July 15th 1857 requiring Second Proof to be sought after at Harrisburg in the case of Mary M. B. B. widow of Hugh
A. B. in right of the Revolutionary services of her said husband cannot duly be heard unless you will find additional evidence showing that Second evidence in this case has been sought after but have failed to obtain it as you will obtain from said evidence abundant evidence might be produced of Hugh McBride being reported and regarded as a Revolutionary Soldier in the neighbourhood in which he lived, but such proof we thought unnecessary, as there is now on file the testimony of two respectable and credible witnesses as to his Revolutionary Services.

Showing said Services to have been rendered. - testimony which is difficult to procure at this late day on account of the rapid decrease of the survivors of the Revolutionary Army.

Permit me to say that the claimant is poor, and by granting this claim, if consistent with your sense of duty, you will have administered to the comfort and happiness of an old and meritorious years. The applicant respectfully asks a further examination of her said claim hoping it may arrive at your hands a

Sir

Your letter dated Aug 24th 1857 in regard to the case of Mary M Bride widow of Abner M Bride a Revolutionary Soldier your pension case duly to hand and in reply have to state that the same evidence which placed her on the pension roll of the State of Penn^a is now before you. Enclosed you will find an Act of Assembly which I presume will show the principle upon which the State of Penn^a stands in regard to granting Pensions - that is the half pay principle. In special act for The relief of Revolutionary soldiers and their widows it has been the custom of the Legislature of Penn^a to grant an Annuity of Forty Dollars during life & gratuity for the highest term of service as may be seen by reference to Pamphlet Law. I do not know of any thing at Harrisburg which may throw light on the point suggested in your letter. The Applicant therefore rests her case upon the services as proven by Mrs Bride Wholey and James McDowell with full confidence that in adjusting her allowance you will grant to her an aged relic of a Son of Liberty the full amount to which she may be entitled under the willence

Yours very Respectfully

Dear Sir

In consequence of the meeting of Congress I will not be able to be personally present to day at the examination of the claims of Mary McDonald widow of Hugh for Pension and Bounty Land but avail myself of this method of making a few suggestions. Any Statement which may be made by Mr Downer her Atty in reference to these claims may be regarded by you as altogether reliable.

I have examined a copy of the Proof on file in support of the said widows claim for a Pension and am well satisfied that the testimony of Mr James McDonald indicates actual service in the Revolutionary war at least from the month of December 1781 until the close of the Revolutionary war. The testimony of Mr. Jacob Whoolery in my opinion corroborates the testimony of Mr. McDonald in regard to said service. Taking this testimony in conjunction with the fact that a gratuity and annuity were granted to him by act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania I think these claims well founded. - Expeditions of this kind will be required in cases of this kind where time and death have rendered it almost impossible to obtain personal testimony of services rendered in the Revolutionary war.

Believing these claims to be just and equitable I hope they may receive at your hands a favorable consideration.

Yours very respectfully
Wm. H. Hunt

Att'y for Applicant

Am: Gen: C. Whaley,
Com: of Pension, U.S.C.

Jacobson Tenn, Aug: 1850.

Here with I forward you a copy of Am: Gen: Stungen (whose U.S. Senate from Penna for 1 year, and during the Penna. Army offl. Genl: at Phila.) and a certificate of Am: Chas: Stovel, (now as an A.C. for 15.62 years) certifying as to the respectability of Mrs. Mary M. McBride, of Frys, the Co. Penna, an applicant for a Rev. Pen. under the act of Feb: 1848, and to the credibility of Mr. Donald A. Whaley, the witness in the claim.

If it is admitted that these two witnesses are credible, (and you can have no objection to this if the certificate of Marshall & Galloway are worthy of credit, you cannot resist the allowance of this claim.

Mr. Donald appears to state "That he personally knew that they both (Mr. M. Donald &

" Mrs. M. (Pike) engaged in the purchase & winter season at Phila.
" Pitt, in Dec: 1781, under Capt. Smith & Col. Hillen's Reg: and " spent their useful term and a fortnight to Nov: 1783" (as Mrs.) Whaley states that

"Mr. Pike served 22 months, as certified by Capt. P. Long
" at the late of. War."

Reside these positive and direct statements, the witnesses give a long narrative of facts, &c, all of which do to show that they have a hard as personal knowledge about the things of which they testify. Confessing these statements, with the certificates enclosed making for their credit & lib: and I next see how you can resist the conclusion that this sister, who is recognized as a Pensioner for Revolutionary services by the state of Pennsylvania, and to whom you allowed Comptroler and General aid, is entitled to a pension under said act for 12 months under the late husband in the Revolutionary War. You can resist this conclusion by saying of the proof adduced - like a home-jerk spoken of by Solomon in Proverbs - "is naught; his weight and his growth may straighten, and be straight, and his strength may be as the strength of a man, and his faithful consideration of the proof in this case; and I am sure you cannot do otherwise.

Some you may object to the claim of Margaretta, wife of David Cassidy, and it was referred to the committee by your office. In this case there is the testimony of one witness who purports to be a witness, and from the facts about which he testified there is the corroborative proof, and no appeal to the Sup. of the Tribunal, the claim is allowed. This is a good precedent for this case - and the only sustained by the interferer, a father; the case should be declined.

The mode in which I come across this claim is this: Some time of Feb. 1840, Pa. and in connection with Mr. Donaghy, a claimant in the Pension Law, he spoke of this case, and reported and I assume it, when at D.C. I did so, and considering it was a good one, and fully sustained, as I thought, I do not, with the modes herein enclosed, that the claim be again taken up, the papers carefully examined, the weight given to the proof, and (as I think you will so conclude) the claim allowed.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours truly,
J. G. Thompson

Fayette County so it is hereby Certified that Satisfactory Proof has been exhibited before me Register having Probate Jurisdiction for the County of Fayette in the State of Pennsylvania by the Affidavit of James McDonald a person of known respectability and a Credible Witness. That relative to the military Services of Hugh McBride in the Indian War under General Wayne of the Northwestern Army of 1793 &c. that said Hugh McBride was then of Capt. Richard Sparks Company of the Regiment Commanded by Col Butler under whom he the said McBride engaged near Pittsburg Penn^a for the term of three years in the month of April 1793. - The said James McDonald further Certifies that he was a Member of the said Company & Regiment and that when at Fort Washington the said McBride was one of the many guards to protect the army stores also guard duty the stock &c. until the said Army was ordered out to the Indian Country, and that he the said McBride continued to serve in the said Service until the general Battle of the said month of August 1794 in which said McBride was then and then engaged, and thus continued to serve until after the final treaty at Greenville in the then Territory of Ohio on the third day of August 1795 and that soon after said treaty, said McBride and he the said Deponant was honorably discharged by their said officers at Greenville. Said Hugh McBride was fugleman of the Regt. of Fusiliers in 1782.-3 at Fort Pitt. Further that relative to the said Hugh McBride's Revolutionary Services he the said McDonald can only state that his Father Abraham and said Hugh McBride after they returned &c. they often spoke of serving together in the Flying Camp. and for eight months at the Valley Forge. - But that ~~the~~ said James McDonald personally knows that the said Hugh McBride and the said Abraham his father both engaged in the Militia and Volunteer Service at Fort Pitt in the month of December 1781 under Capt. Smith & of Col McKims 3^d Regiment and they served their lawful tours and also served as substitutes at least half their time, and they had a little home and families on this dangerous frontier - that they continued in said Service until November 1783.

I further Certify that Satisfactory Proof has been exhibited before me Register as aforesaid by the Affidavit of Jacob Wholby a person of unimpeachable Character and a Credible Witness that he has been long and well acquainted with Mary McBride, who is the lawful Widow of Hugh McBride. That relative to the Revolutionary Services of her husband Hugh McBride rendered east of the Mountains I can only say that the said McBride was under the general reputation of having been a Revolutionary Soldier, also of the Indian war that said Hugh McBride and Abraham McDonald shall serve east of the Mountains, but after their services under Capt. Marshall at York Town (Virginia affairs), soon after Lord Cornwallis's battle and surrender, they also stated that they returned to Lancaster regarding prisoners &c. until sometime in November 1781. from thence they the said McDonald and the said McBride returned home to the frontier - I saw them engage in the frontier service as hired substitutes says deponent and said deponent also says that said McDonald ~~was engaged~~ for two months for Joseph Smith and the said Hugh McBride substituted also for two months for Alexander Davis (each of whom were residents of Fort Pitt about the middle of December 1781, or being a little after the Indians attempted to burn Fort Pittaining early in said December of said year - that then the said McDonald and said McBride continued to serve on and near ~~the~~ Alleghany River - that the said McBride and said McDonald, Joseph Deplin & P. Smith & others all of said Capt. Smith's company of Militia & Volunteers & of the Regiment commanded by Col. Willins (father of Judge Willins) and that the other company commanded by Capt. McCully (late Major) - said companies relieved other &c. in their turn - also D. Lewellen & J. McCadden all of whom were of said McBrides Mess, and that they the said McBride and McDonald continued to serve at the many different posts, forts Block houses & Stations on & near the said Alleghany River until their term of two months expired when they were honorably discharged by said Capt.

Smith at Fort Pittaining about the 15th February 1782 that on or about the 16th of February 1782 said McBride being lately drafted &c. commences his second two months ~~term~~ under said Capt. McCully & that said McBride & said McDonald being very desirous of serving and serving their whole time, in order to get both government & the substitute pay &c. they were counted useful soldiers for long & early practice first under Wilmour & E. of the early part of the Revolution. Deponent further declares that he personally knew that said McBride did well and truly serve in the said capacity as above, also as a volunteer &c. until after the Peace of November 1783 having served twenty two months and some days, - that deponent resided long on the frontier & near fifteen years of age in 1781-2 &c. yet he cannot distinctly recollect all of the dates in proper rotation, but can remember said services as they occurred and knows that they rendered the said service whereof I hereunto set my hand

Hon. Jacob Thompson,
Secy. of Int. U. S.
Sir.

Under the act of 3d. Feb. 1853, Mary, widow of Hugh M. B. of Fayette County, Pennsylvania (the County of my birth-) presented a claim for the services of her husband, the said Hugh, in the War of the Revolution.
The claim was presented by the testimony of James M. Donald, and Jacob Whaley, both of whom testify that Hugh M. B. served ~~twelve~~ ^{ten} months in the War of the Revolution; and these statements are so made, detailing as they do facts & circumstances, and expressly claiming personal knowledge, as to create the impression that the witnesses had a personal knowledge about the facts concerning which they testify. The credibility of the witnesses is amply sustained by the testimony of others of the most prominent & respectable citizens of Fayette County, on the original paper itself; to which was recently added the Strong voucher of Hon. Par. Sturgeon who was for 12 years a U. S. Senator of the State of Penn^a, and the Hon. Andrew Stewart, long a member of the lower House of Congress - who are, and have long been residents of said County. Supported thus, with positive statements of witnesses, this claim has been rejected, or suspended - by the Commissioners of Pensions - from whose decision in this case, I respectfully pray an appeal that the case may come especially under your reconsideration: and for the following reasons: -

1. The acts relating to widows have never been on their and very properly, so, with so much vigor as a proof, as those relating to ^{soldiers} ~~soldiers~~ pensions. From the very nature of the case, a widow could not obtain such proof as would be in the power of the soldier. In the Com^r letter of Aug. 25, 1857, he says "the law directs that the affidavits of intruders shall be made out, &c." It is well known that this regulation applied only to comparators, as they were called, who, in open Court, sustained the statements of the soldier in the militia service, where their comrades were beyond their reach, and here let me remark that thousands of pensions were granted under these regulations - which did not require the statement of a solitary comrade of the claimant in the service; & many of these widows are now drawing pensions upon claims thus established, under the act of Feb. 3, 1853.

2. This proof is of much stronger character than that required by the militia under the act of June 32. Two comparators as to reputation - with a minister of the Gospel was all that those acts required; but in this case, we file the statements of two intruders, abundantly certified to be credible, whose statements were first filed before the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and were so satisfactory to the Committee of that body, as to obtain a favorable report thereon, and the passage of a law granting this very widow a pension; and she is now drawing a pension under a special act of the Legislature of that State, which act expressly states that the pension is granted in consideration of the services of her husband in the War of the Revolution.

- 3 The State of Pennsylvania having recognized the services of Hugh M. Bide, by a special act, gives to those affidavits the nature of a public record - the correctness of which should be placed beyond question by the solemn act representing the united will of that Commonwealth.
4. Some of the proof shows service in the Indian wars; and the Com^r in his letter, dated Aug. 29, & Sept. 12, 1857, seems to entertain doubt as to his service on six months in the War of the Revolution. And yet James McDonald says that H. B. was in service in Decr. 1781, & continued in service to Nov. 1783; 23 mos; Whilst Wholey says he was in service in said War (Revolution) 22 months, as certified on Nov. 1783, grant that these intruders are credible - and this must be admitted, or all human evidence may be rejected - we have here uncontroverted evidence of at least 22 months in the War of the Revolution, sufficient to give, on an average of time 22 months.
5. I referred in my letter to the case of Mangrove, ind. of David Deardark - of Tenn - decided by yourself on an appeal from the decisions of the Commissioners. That claim was filed under the act of 1828; the testimony of but one comrade in service was filed, taken as a common oath, before a Justice of the Peace - whose brief statement scarcely gave room for the belief that he was a comrade in all the campaigns about which he testified: - there was corroborative traditional proof made as to credibility only of a Justice of the Peace as to the main intruder; and yet that claim was allowed - justly, as I consider, and as credit to the head & heart that decided it. The pro-

=but case is a much stronger one; that of a widow claiming a pension under the recognized services of her husband in the Revolution by the solemn act of a great Commonwealth; in the proof of two anteposers abandoned with marks of credibility—given, under circumstances wherein can be no suspicion of improper motives; all of which, without referring to other points which I might mention, & which I omit but de-testations, if carefully considered by yourself with a review of the original papers cannot fail to satisfy you, as I sincerely hope, that this is a just claim, made out fully so as to meet the reasonable requirements of the law,

I therefore respectfully ask that the papers in the case may be brought before ^{you} and that, from the reasons here given, and from other reasons which you will find in the papers themselves, you will reverse the Com^{rs} decision, and allow this claim. — I am very Respy, &c. J. J. P. Baban
